Hon. John K. Olson, United States Bankruptcy
Judge, Southern District of Florida

Paul Steven Singerman, Prominent Bankruptcy
Lawyer and Co-Chair, Berger Singerman LLP

Thomas M. Messana, Prominent Bankruptcy
Lawyer and Managing Shareholder, Messana, P.A.

Judge John K Olson

John Karl Olson began his term as a United States Bankruptcy Judge with duty station in Fort Lauderdale in February 2006. For the 18 years before that, he was a shareholder in the Tampa office of Stearns Weaver Miller. Judge Olson graduated from Harvard College magna cum laude in history. He graduated from Boston College Law School (where he was on the law review) in 1975. Judge Olson is a former Chair of the Business Law Section of The Florida Bar and is currently Chair of the Abuse of the Bankruptcy Process Subco Subcommittee of the Business Bankruptcy Committee of the American Bar Association.

Paul Steven Singerman

Paul Steven Singerman is Co-Chair Berger Singman and concentrates his practice in troubled loan workouts, insolvency matters and commercial transactions. Paul is active throughout the United States in large and complex restructuring, insolvency and bankruptcy cases. His work in many cases has garnered the widespread respect of his peers.

Although Paul is best known for his representation of debtors in complex restructuring cases, he is also experienced in representing creditors' committees, lenders, large unsecured creditors, asset purchasers in § 363 sales and trustees. Much of his work has involved companies with international operations or European or Asian parties-in-interest.

Thomas M. Messana

Thomas M. Messana concentrates his practice in bankruptcy, receiverships, assignments for the benefit of creditors, insolvency and financial restructuring, bankruptcy-related litigation, creditors' rights, corporate reorganization, out-of-court workouts, and bankruptcy acquisitions. He represents a wide range of clients with diverse interests including corporations, financial institutions, individual and business debtors, secured, unsecured and priority creditors, creditors' committees, trustees and entities seeking to acquire assets out of distressed situations.
